

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Entered at the post-office at Frankfort, Kentucky, as second class mail matter.

GEORGE A. LEWIS.
Editor and Publisher.

FRANKFORT, JULY 5, 1884.

Mr. Mike Buckley has been awarded the contract for erecting the Colored Public School building. It is to be built of brick, three stories high, with four rooms on a floor.

Senator John S. Williams, on Monday, succeeded in getting the appropriation for Kentucky river, which had been cut down by the committee, restored in the River and Harbor bill to $250,000. It is a great misfortune for Kentucky that "old Cerro Gordo" is to be succeeded by a gentleman who cares so little for the wishes of his people as to neglect this important measure entirely.

The City Directory.

Mr. Chas. Emerson has just completed and published the first city directory of Frankfort. The work is gotten up with great care and contains much useful information to our people. In addition to a full and complete alphabetical list of all the residents of the city, with their place of business and residence, it contains a post-office, telegraph and express office directory of the State; a list of all the land owners in the county, with their post-office address and the number of acres of land owned by each; a classified list of all the business men of the city and county, and any amount of miscellaneous information, making a volume well worth having, and one which advances the interests of our people by advertising to the world that we are not only a city in name but in fact. Mr. Emerson has had considerable experience in this business and has done his work well. He proposes to return again in two years to get out a second volume, and it is to be hoped that by that time our population will have become so numerous that he will be compelled to issue a volume twice the size of the present. He will shortly begin the work of getting out a similar volume in Maysville, and we can safely recommend him to the residents of that city as a gentleman in every way worthy of their confidence, who will fulfill all his contracts and give them a good job.

Mossbacks.

One would hardly think that there was a citizen of this place who would object to having a small piece of tin bearing a number placed over his door, but nevertheless there are quite a number who not only objected but wanted to resort to legal process to prevent their houses from being numbered. For our part we cannot conceive what earthly objection any sensible person could have to it. Our city is growing and it was only a question of time when the work would have to be done. Mr. Chas. Emerson, a gentleman of experience in such matters, came to this city for the purpose of getting up a city directory. The City Council saw that this was an opportunity to have the work correctly and well executed, and he was asked to make an estimate of the cost. He did so, and the Council employed him to do the work, and passed an ordinance requiring every property owner to pay him twenty-five cents for each number placed upon their houses. He complied with his contract, made accurate measurements, and has numbered the houses of all who did not positively refuse to allow him to do so, and by far the greater part of our citizens think the Council have acted wisely. It is true all those who are now kicking were not consulted before the order was made, and perhaps that is why they object to paying for it; but then the Councilmen had an idea that they were elected to manage the affairs of the city, and did not think it necessary. It is to be hoped that such old fogies will learn some day that this is a progressive age, and they will have to keep up with it or be run over. They cannot clog the wheels of progress and might as well fall into line. Our little city is going to be city sure enough some of these days, and this is only one step in that direction.

A new foot bridge 170 feet long has been erected over the hollow on Ewing street.

Mr. Doc. Howell, of Belle Point, while at work laying brick on the new warehouse at the Old Crow Distillery of Messrs. W. A. Gaines & Co., on Wednesday, was overcome with heat. He was brought home as soon as it was cool enough to move him, and it was feared he could not recover, but we are glad to be able to state that he is doing very well and will soon be all right again.

The raspberry festival given by the ladies of the Southern Presbyterian Church in the church yard, corner Steele and Third, Wednesday evening, was largely attended and a perfect success. There was the greatest abundance of ices and other delicacies, and all that were not sold that evening were disposed of to parties who went out picnicing yesterday. The receipts amounted to over $200. The ladies desire us to return their thanks to the public for their generous patronage and to the ladies who contributed so liberally towards getting up the entertainment.

The Water Question Settled.

After being in session several hours Tuesday and Wednesday evenings and Thursday morning, considering the question of new water works, the City Council finally settled the matter, it is to be hoped, for all time.

Two propositions were before the Water Committee, one from Mr. Glenn, who offered $15,000 for the old works, and agreed to lay down 8 miles of 4 and 8 inch pipe and put in 80 fire hydrants, for which he proposed to charge the city an annual rental of $50 each.

The Frankfort Water Company offered $20,000 for the old works, proposed to lay down 13 miles of 8 and 12 inch pipe, put in 100 fire hydrants at an annual rental of $6,000.

A majority of the committee reported in favor of accepting the Glenn proposition, and Councilman Mangan offered a minority report recommending that an inventory be made of the pipe now in use, and when the committee had gained all the information necessary that they advertise for bids for water privilege for twenty-five years in papers published in Louisville, St. Louis and New York. The vote on the minority report was as follows: yeas, Church, Mangan, McClure, and Williams; nays, Taylor, Drane, Ford, Meagher, and Sneed.

The vote on the majority report was then taken and resulted as follows: yeas—Meagher and Sneed; nays—Taylor, Church, Drane, Ford, Mangan, McClure and Williams.

Mayor Taylor then offered the following:

Resolved by the Board of Councilmen of the City of Frankfort, That they will contract with the Frankfort Water Co. for a water supply for the city of Frankfort, the service to be made equal in all respects to that of any other city whatever, and the charges for service to consumers not to exceed the charges made to the citizens of Louisville, and that the charge for 100 hydrants for fire purposes shall not exceed $6,000; and that said Company guarantee the city that the fire supply will enable the city to dispense with her fire engines, and that said Company will take the present water mains of the city at a cash price of $20,000, as they now stand, keeping open the present supply until the new works shall be completed and successfully operated. A contract of careful preparation to be entered into between the contracting parties.

Councilman Meagher moved to strike out Frankfort Water Company and insert any responsible Company; also strike out $6,000 for fire hydrants and insert $5,000, which was defeated by the following vote: yeas, Church, Meagher and Sneed; nays, Taylor, Drane, Ford, Mangan, McClure and Williams.

The vote was then taken on Mayor Taylor's resolution and resulted as follows: yeas, Taylor, Drane, Ford, McClure, Williams; nays, Church, Mangan, Meagher, Sneed.

The Council will meet to-day to prepare the contract.

The Frankfort Water Company is composed of the members of the firm of Dennis Long & Co., of Louisville, Cols. J. Stoddard Johnston, Thos. Rodman, sr., Gen. D. W. Lindsey and Hon. W. J. Chinn, of this city, and several gentlemen from Louisville, who will go to work at once to erect a reservoir on one of the hills, construct a pumping station at a convenient point on the river bank, and lay down mains to supply both North and South Frankfort.

If anybody wishes an indignation meeting called the Court House is idle, and our accommodating Jailor will ring the bell.
